Happy Birthday to you, Happy birthday to you....

Greetings for a great year and health to you and your family. You are a very talented and classy lady! We don't get older, just better -like a fine wine. So, have a glass and heres to celebrating another year. Keep up the great work. While I'm a StarGate junkie, I think that Sanctuary is some of your best work yet! Bless you, enjoy.

Vicki

Happy Birthday !!!!!!!!!!!

Dear Amanda:

Hi, Amanda!

I hope your birthday is filled with family fun--I bet Olivia will have a big kiss for you first thing in the morning.

I'm looking forward, first to Sanctuary 2 starting in October; and then to AT4 in November and meeting up with all the friends you've brought together over the past 12 years. See you then!

Love you, Amanda--continued success and happiness.

Dona (donamac at Gateworld's Samanda)

Dear Amanda:

Happy birthday from me, and from my daughter, Rachael. We're both fans now ! Rachael just turned 6 last week... and she is already a fan of Samantha Carter ! And I think that's great ! She may not understand why Teal'c has "that gold thing" on his head, but I think she does see Sam as a positive role model.

Happy Birthday and our wishes for many, many more to come !

~ Maria

May you have the happiest of days Amanda dear. You never cease to brighten my days with your smile and laughter. My family & I enjoy Sanctuary very, very much and hope that it has a long & successful life. Another job Well Done. :) Requiem was awesome!! You knocked it out of the park . The Happiest of Birthdays to the brightest of stars. Thank you for being wonderful you.

With Love, Pam

Amanda,

It's been a privilege to get to know a little of you over the past couple years and it has enriched my life, my experiences and my sense of value in ways I didn't think were possible. You've changed the way I perceive a lot of things and through the cons I've learned lessons I could have never learned otherwise. You've single handedly broken a lot of preconceived ideas that I've been taking for granted over the years and I'm a better person and much more free without them.

For that I thank you and wish you all the best in life. Happy birthday!!!!

Dear Amanda

Just wanted to wish you many happy returns - hope you have a brilliant birthday, and that it's the start of a really special year for you and your family.

Looking forward to seeing you at AT4 in November.

All the best,

Dear Amanda,

My name is Cristina Mateescu and I am from Bucharest, Romania. I am a big fan of yours and all I want to say is: may God give you the courage to take the Road not Taken to Ascension, the power to break the Threads that bind you to your unpleasant memories with the Bad guys in your life, the intelligence to see everything from a different Point of View, Beneath the Surface covered with Secrets. May you find a Fair Game to play, a Sanctuary for All the ones you love and yourself. Oh, and if you can use something as a Window of Opportunity to get in a Space Race to the Gemini constellation, I'd say you do it!

Anyway, leaving the Sci-Fi behind (that's pretty hard to do since I met Samantha Carter and Helen Magnus, but...), I wish you a happy birthday and a long life near the ones you love! And good luck with Sanctuary!

Yours sincerely,

Cristina.

I would like to say a warm happy birthday from Romania! I love your playing and we are a lot of fans in Romania! maybe sometime you will visit our country.

Bye!

Lucian

Happy Birthday Amanda!!!!

Hope this day brings you much joy, love, and hugs. I know this makes you uncomfortable but what better time than your birthday for me to tell you "thank you" for the purpose you've brought back into my life. Your smile and caring for those you don't even know. A hug, the squeeze of a hand with a most sincere look in someone's eyes, you have no idea what that means to people who may have something going on at that time in their own lives. You bring light into dark corners without even knowing it. And that comes from a true and dear heart. Yours is that heart.

So on your day I wish all of the love and smiles and good light comes back to you 100 fold. For you deserve nothing less.

Happy Birthday!

Your Friend,
Erin Kelly

Happy Birthday Amanda!

If I can be half the actor you are I know I won't starve. Best wishes and good luck in all you do in this next year!

Hi Amanda! I'm a 16 years old girl from Hungary, and I just wanted to wish you a happy birthday, good health and long life. Or should I say "live long a prosper"? Oh, that's the Star Trek, but I know you watched.

I hope you will have many more birthdays to celebrate with your family, and on my part to greet you! I love Sanctuary just as I love Stargate and congratulations for both of them! And for AT4, too! If there will be an AT next year in London again, I'm sure I'll be able to go and see you for the fist time. And thank you for making 7 years of my life so wonderful with your smile!

We love you here in Hungary, and happy birthday once again.

"Dear Amanda:

You are the first celebrity who I write, because you are my favorite actress. You have given many pleasant clocks to me, watching Stargate SG1, Atlantis, Continuum and The Ark of Truth. My favourite character from this shows is Sam Carter, of course. I saw you in other movies (for example: Rent-a-Kid, Stuck, The Void and Dancing Trees) and you were fantastic int these shows. I am looking forward too seeing the Sanctuary second Season, this series is very exciting.

I would like to wish you very Happy Birthday with this quote from a great Hungarian poet, Janos Arany.

"Live for long time and be your life
Clear, lively such as the cheerful day
Which it arises from red dawn
And sets in one again."

With love and respect, your fan Anita Csatlos from Hungary."

Dear Amanda,

Wishing you a very Happy Birthday :) You are a real inspiration. If there were more people like you in the world it would be a much more bearable place to live in. You will always have my support :)

Happy Birthday, Amanda!

Happy Birthday!

If you read this message before your birthday, I have to you a small obvious request.

Put off till coming of your happy hoped-for significant daybreak (till birthday) this message in a box. Because to congratulate ahead of time I consider as a bad habit because between the cup and the lip a morsel may slip.

Not but what here my message of congratulation.

Happy Birthday to you!

Happy Birthday to you!

Happy Birthday, dear Amanda!

Happy Birthday to you!

Lovingly kiss you and hug!

Your happiness is my flag!

Your wonderful day looks beautiful you.

My message is a present only for you!

Have fun!

I hope you'll waste no time reading it.

I want that from the message at least for a particle but your happiness has increased!

For greater I even dare not hope. I even cannot imagine, however hard I may try, how much highly improbable cheerful instants you have happened to experience!

Dear Amanda,

I wish you a very happy birthday and hope you'll be able to spend it with your family and have a nice relaxing day with them.

I wish you health, luck and success for your future plans.

I'm so looking forward to seeing you at the Chicago creation con in a few days and at AT4! I'm so excited about it I can't stop thinking about it, even though the Chicago con will be past when you read your birthday messages.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND LOTS OF HUGS

Susanne

TO AMANDA

Well, what can I say? Where do I begin? You are an amazing person and on the two wonderful occasions I have met you I have been blown away by your kindness, your generosity, your sweet, caring nature and by the way you can make your fans laugh, cry, smile and just feel so happy at being granted a chance to experience some part of your world. You are one of the most generous, humble and loving people I have ever met, and your humour... wow, you have such amazing wit and an uncanny ability to make any situation hilarious and memorable with the slightest action. You give back to the fans so generously that we can't help but love you. So I wish you a very Happy Birthday and hope that your every dream and wish is fulfilled... because damn girl you deserve it!

Dear Amanda,

As I typed this birthday greeting to you I had to hit the backspace key so many times that it actually became annoying. This is the first time that I've actually sent 'Birthday Greetings' to you, and I'm a little nervous. I couldn't find the right words to convey my birthday wishes to you. Each sentence sounded formal or sounded like I had hit 'right-click: synonyms' too many times to form a functioning thought.

I want to say/write something profound and meaningful but again words fail me. You are such an inspiration that I cannot honestly express my thanks. There is something about you that makes the world a better place and makes me want to be a better person. I know you must hear that a lot but it's the truth. You've helped me in more ways that I could ever possibly mention and for that I can only ever say 'Thank you'. I guess that's counts a little as a 'present'. If not, Happy Birthday :D

As a fellow Virgo, I just want to wish you the happiest birthday possible and a hip, hip hooray. And of course, one to grow on. You truly are the brightest star and I hope you continue to shine at everything you do. You really are a rock star. I wish you the very best.

Lots of love and virtual hugs,

Karen.

Dear Amanda,

Another birthday, another year younger, right? Isn't that how it works? wink I hit 30 this July, finally feeling my age. GASP No one warned me! grin

Happy birthday, Amanda. I hope this one is even better than the last, filled with love from family and friends. I also hope you do something fun to celebrate, or maybe just spend it with those with whom you're close. I'll be thinking about you, as always.

See you in November at AT4. GAH! I cannot wait. I've missed London, and I've missed you. I wasn't able to attend Comic Con this year and it felt like something was seriously missing. Was going to give you a gift I'd picked up (nothing fancy, just something a co-worker was giving away that screamed "Amanda" at me), but as that's not GABIT appropriate, it will have to wait. smile I suppose I had my share of Amanda Time in Vancouver and Los Angeles, although, really...there's no such thing as "too much" in regards to The Tappinator (stolen, affectionately, from Jewel Staite.)

So have a wonderful birthday, Amanda. Many positive vibes and happy thoughts, and much good energy in your direction. Sending my love to your hubby and baby girl, as well.

With love, always,

Jenni Cole (LilFerret)

family, friends, and so many others because

You are a person who loves, who cares, who sees a person's need and fills it,
who encourages and lifts people up,
who spends energy on others rather than herself,
someone who touches each life she enters for the better, because ripples of kindness flow outward as each person you have touched, touches others, you represent the hopes and dreams of those who love and cherish you.

Your birthday deserves to be a national holiday, because you are a special treasure
for all that you've done,
may the love you have shown to others return to you, multiplied.

I wish you the happiest of birthdays,
and many, many more,
so that others have time to appreciate you
as much as I do.

You are a wonderful wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend,
you are an incredible actor, producer, director, and artist,
you are a gift of peace, love and tranquility in the world,
you are inspiration to your fans and to many more,
you are a gold hearted person, and a joyful spirit,
you are a genuine and exemplary human being,
you are everything right and true in the world,
you are the definition of the word beauty,
you are an angel from heaven on Earth,
You are a blessing in this world,
you are a miracle,
you are a light,
you are love,
you are my hero.
You are Amanda Tapping.

Happy birthday to you Amanda
From the bottom of my heart.

You mean the world to me, as you do to your fans, your smile, and laugh warms the hearts of so many.
But the truly blessed ones are those in your life,
your parents are blessed to call you their daughter,
Your bothers are blessed to call you their sister,
Olivia is blessed to call you her mother,
Alan is blessed to call you his wife.
You are the greatest gift they could have ever ask for.

Congratulations on your Leo award win, you deserved it,

Dearest Amanda Tapping,

I wanted to take the time to wish you the best birthday ever. As I've said a bunch of times, either through the gateway site, your personal site, Twitter, facebook, wherever I can, you have been an inspiration to women all over the world. You do not me from Adam, but watching SG1 and Sanctuary and seeing you play such awesome women characters, inspired me to return to school. I am almost done, and God willing, will be graduating in May with my Associates in none other than Information Technology, with emphasis on Website Development. Yes I LOVE COMPUTERS... J

I hope you have an awesome day, and that you have many many many more years of birthdays.

I hope to see for years to come, Sanctuary's continued success, and of course, for little Olivia to continue to be blessed with such an amazing mother. J

Dear Amanda,

First of all: I wish you a really wonderful Happy Birthday, hopefully together with your family and/or a lot of friends! Many very happy returns of the day! I have decided to write to you simply because I like and admire you so much. Mind you, I'm 38 - and sound more like a teenager perhaps. Sorry, but I have now seen most of the episodes of SG-1 four or five times, some even more often - mostly because of you. It is not simply the character of Sam Carter who attracts me so much, but it is the way you give life to that person. I like your ways of speaking, laughing, moving, holding your head, taking matters seriously if needed ... (I even listen to the extra commentaries when you participate - so much for: "Is anyone still listening out there?" at the end of an episode). I would like to thank you very much for all the countless wonderful hours you and the others of the cast have given me and will continue to provide. I am looking forward to seeing you back in SG-1 movies and have pre-ordered Sanctuary, which sadly I have not yet been able to see here in Germany. I wish you all the best, health and happiness for the coming year and the future and that all your plans may work out as you wish!

Very kind greetings
Gisela Schnappauf

TO AMANDA,

I wish you a very Happy, Happy Birthday!

Happy Happy Birthday, AMANDA!

have an awesome birthday surrounded by people who love and appreciate you.

Happy Birthday from your Australian Fan, Courtney Smith.

(By the way you don't have to stand on your head to read this message.)

Amanda,

It's hard to think you're 44. It was only yesterday you were the young, beautiful and ambitious girl bravely embarking on her acting career. Now look at you. A strong, talented, and still beautiful woman with a even stronger fan-base sticking by you whatever you do. You've got many years ahead of you, and many more paths you will take. Be proud of what you have accomplished so far, and don't be afraid to take a few wild risks once in a while. Have a great birthday, you deserve it.

God bless you.

Gemma

To Amanda,

I want to wish you the HAPPIEST of birthdays! I hope you may spend your day doing what you love best, with the people you love best, and eating all your favourite foods...no matter how sickly :D (that IS what birthdays are for hehe!!).

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank you for your wonderful work during our toughest of times. My husband had his stem cell transplant had a successful stem cell transplant for his Leukaemia a year ago. He is now twenty-one years old, and it was an extremely difficult time over the two years that he was ill. During that time, Stargate (SG-1 and Atlantis) became our escape and inspiration. For a moment, sitting there in his hospital room, we forgot the pain, the drugs, the sickness, the sleepless nights, and it was replaced by the vision of a vivid life, and filled us with the fighting spirit (and the escape!) that we needed. To this day, and for years to come, you (and your portrayed character of Sam Carter) will always be my role model, I will keep striving to become as strong a woman as you are, working for the betterment of humanity (and animals-I love animals :D), with your wonderful sense of self integrity. I watch the Stargate series over and over...you are my inspiration!!!

We hope to meet you at the Armageddon Expo in Auckland, New Zealand. We may only be two specks in a sea of fans, in a tiny country at the bottom of the world, but we love and admire you very very much!!!

With love and gratitude...and HAPPY BIRTHDAY :D

Happy Birthday! My children and I wish all the best for a wonderful celebration and a fantastic year ahead.

You've been such an inspiration in our lives. For years, we've gathered as a family on Friday nights to watch Stargate and now Sanctuary - both of which have sparked spirited conversations about everything from physics and astronomy to character and story development. Your courage, talent and tenacity have also impacted me immensely, giving me the strength to test and stretch myself both personally and professionally.

You're awesome! Thanks for being you, and for sharing your spirit with us all.

Sincerely,

Lori Sauerwein (Danny and Jessie, too)

Hey Amanda!

I want to wish you a very very ... very happy birthday.

Let there be cake, presents, flowers... everything you seem fit so your birthday will be a day you'll never forget.

May all your wishes and desires come true, and let the candles on your cake be blown out in the first effort .

Once again, all the best and hopefully an Emmy (or two), cause you really deserve it.

Dear AMANDA TAPPING,

I wanted to wish you a happy birthday! You are my favorite actor, and a true inspiration to me. You are one of my heroes and I hope to one day be as great an actress as you! I met you at Comic Con 2009 (I was Mystique...the blue one at the Stargate booth during the signing session, who totally embarrassed herself by almost crying cause I was so overwhelmed when you talked to me because it was so unexpected). You were so kind and funny and it was one of the best moments of my life! For me it was a dream come true to meet someone I have admired for so long! I love all of your work, and I believe you can achieve anything you want, and Sanctuary is a perfect example of that! I think the show is fabulous (you are amazing), but I think the charity is even more so! Using your influence to help others is only one of the reasons I look up to you. I dream of one day doing exactly the same thing, and you have inspired that in me! Thank you so much for being your fabulous self! Have a fabulous birthday, and I hope to see you again in the future.

Sincerely,
KIRSTEN LORENC

Dear Amanda Tapping,

I'm a huge fan of you and your characters in Stargate SG 1 and Stargate Atlantis and just wanted to thank you for your wonderful work in the Stargate series and movies.

I want to congratulate: I wish you a wonderful and happy birthday with friends and family.

I'm looking forward to see you in the next Stargate movies. I read at your homepage about Sanctuary.

Unfortunately it's not on German TV, but I ordered the original English DVD first season at amazon.co.uk, where it will be available in October, because I'm absolutely looking forward to watch it, your new project!

I'm not sure whether it is of interest to you, but finally I would like to introduce myself a little bit:

I have studied classical music (piano, guitar, vocal) at Munich, graduated there as music teacher in 1990.

So I'm a musician, but later learned an new second occupation as a Webdeveloper, -consultant and technical project manager.

I have many interests and hobbies, e.g. nature-photography, astrology, astronomy, mythology, genealogy and of course

SciFi since childhood: Jules Verne, Isaac Asimov, Star Trek, Farscape and all of the Stargate-universe.

Happy birthday!

In humble admiration,

Robert von Heeren

Happy Birthday Amanda! I hope you have a wonderful day. My prayers are with you as you enter another year. God Bless You!

Happy birthday!

You are an inspiration to us all and I deeply wish you many happy years along with your family. May your life be filled with magical moments, may your deepest wishes come true and may you find love and happiness in every day of your life. You are a special person, a role model to many of us and your smile lights up even the saddest moments. So keep smiling and enjoy every second of your time because you deserve all that's best.

"E-mail is not a very cordial or intimate way to compete with a hand-written greeting card and Happy Birthday will always remain a plain pair of words. Imagine I tapped your shoulder and whispered Happy Birthday to your ear. Best of luck in your new age as you have proven you will last more than you think on the screen. Happy Birthday again".

Best,

Burak J

Dear Amanda,

It's nice can tell you every year: Best wishes for your birthday! You are a amazing woman, or girl.... what you like? You are a great actress and I love Sam and Helen for what they represent, so different in the world but both strong but also fragile , as a great women.... like you.

You becomes more and more beautiful each year that passes, you should tell us how to do! I do not know what your pain and your concern, but I have a mother like you and maybe some of these are the same! If the eyes are the mirrors of the soul, you are one of the most beautiful souls of this world and I would like to meet her so much but I know that it will remain a dream! Even if I am feeling a bit surprising (since we do not know in person) that I tell you I love you. I hope that life continues to smile as I am sure you deserve. I hope that my English was understandable and that my message has made you a bit happy, because you do it with me always in your work.

Again best wishes for your birthday with love Simona from Pisa(Italy)

Dear Amanda,

I'd like to wish you a very Happy Birthday, I hope you have a lovely day wherever you are and whatever you are doing on you Birthday.

As a fan of Stargate I was especially interested to read up on Sanctuary when the show first started, knowing you were in it, and some other Atlantis cast, it sounded really interesting. I was excited to hear a few months ago, here in Australia that it was starting on the Sci Fi, seeing you advertise it . I've watched it from the start and I love it ! It's different from anything Sci Fi I've seen so far and I've not missed an episode!

I've told another Sci Fi fan a friend of mine all about Sanctuary, he's a fan of Atlantis and he's very eager to see some of the show. Neither of us were happy when Atlantis and the original Stargate ended, sowe both hope Sanctuary is on for a long time to come!

Congratulations on the show, and Happy Birthday,from myself and my friend Bob Kelly from Glen Innes, NSW, Australia, two Firm Sci Fi fans!

All the best

Belinda Wallis

Amanda,

I have said it before, I'll say it again, I'm a little late to the "club" of being an Amanda-fan! But here I am, in all my geeky-dorky-gaming-cat-owning & rock-music-listening glory, sending you a bunch of "Very Happy Birthday" wishes from sunny South Florida!

I've been in the process of opening my own gaming store, as it turns out, and I'm nervous, scared, and well, worried. But I see what we as women can do, and what you have done before our very eyes, and how I can channel my strength into influencing future girls-into-becoming-women as you have indirectly done for me.... so thank you.

Have a great birthday in 2009 and beyond!
Jennifer
